MENU

Background on Andre

Andre Garrett, a Michelin-star chef, runs the kitchen at the Galvin at Windows restaurant which is situated on the top floor of the plush London Hilton, Park Lane. Last year, Galvin at Windows received a Michelin star - a prestigious accolade which recognises those restaurants which offer outstanding quality.

Andre, 38, from Bath who learnt his trade at the college, is now set to work with the master chefs of the future to create a special gourmet meal. The super chef will be working in the College's new-look kitchens, which have recently been re-fitted with some of the best cooking equipment in the business.
